

Your Individual Rights

The rights relating to decisions being made about YOU without human involvement.

Has the process 'significantly' affected you?

1101

You can seek human intervention (examples)

Recruitment

Credit checking

Profiling

Surveillance technologies

This Right doesn't apply if the decision is:

1. Necessary to perform a contract between you and the organisation
2. Authorised by a different law
3. Being taken with your explicit consent

BUT in these cases organisations must look after your rights and legitimate interests and allow you to challenge and express your point of view

Automated decisions using special category data can't be taken unless:

- They've obtained consent, or
- It's in the public interest
