

10

Your Individual Rights

Your right to raise a complaint with the Jersey Office of the Information Commissioner

If you believe an organisation;

has or is likely to use your information outside of the Law allowed your information to be breached/shared unlawfully

has taken actions likely to affect your individual rights

Step 1

Raise your concern with the organisation.

Step 2

Raise your concerns with the Jersey Office of the Information Commissioner, using our online pro-formas or in writing to us.

